

2. Begin with members of your church, perhaps on Sunday afternoons after Church, as a means to get to know people better.
3. After six months, branch out and try inviting people in your neighborhood. I am convinced, that if you continue consistently, you will begin to see ministry opportunities develop.