ONE HUNDRED

Right up front I admit that I've never seen a church meet this standard, though I still believe it's a biblical one. I've been to one church that comes close. The most important part of the missionary enterprise is prayer, 100% of the disciples ought to be involved in praying for the world and for those sent to reach that world -- through individual and family prayer, which the church may not be able to measure, and through group prayer, which we are able to measure.

In Martinez, Georgia a group of pastors from many denominations gathered to think about
