

February 2008

Alumni spotlight:

Philip and Lynn Jackson are church planters in Macedonia, discipling believers and challenging them to live out the principles of God's Word in their daily lives and relationships.

Our new look

Welcome to the new format of Alumni@CIU, the e-newsletter for the CIU Alumni Association. Each month we will feature alumni stories, practical tools, events and CIU news, as well as Alumni Association updates.

One aspect of this new design that I'm particularly excited about is the "Alumni Spotlight." Each month we'll highlight members of our CIU family around the world. Please take a few moments to pray for the alumni that you see each month when you open this newsletter.

You may instantly unsubscribe by clicking the link at the bottom if you don't want to continue receiving Alumni@CIU (please don't mark it as spam in your mail program). However, I hope you'll enjoy the new design and find value for your life and walk with Christ.

As always, please feel free to contact our office at alumni@ciu.edu with comments or suggestions for future issues.

Alumni Ministries

Casting Call: Live studio audience needed Feb. 28

How would you like to be a part of a "live" studio audience? CIU president Dr. Bill Jones is videotaping a presentation of his vision for the future of CIU and we need a "live" studio audience. The videotaping will take place on Thursday, Feb. 28, from 1:15 to 2:30 p.m. in Shortess Chapel.

We want to capture this on a DVD and our website to share with alumni and friends around the world. The Lord has provided a professional set-up of lighting and cameras for a greatly reduced price if we can record on this day.

If you can come, please RSVP by Feb. 26 by calling (803) 807-5500 or by sending us an e-mail by at alumni@ciu.edu.

Another reason to hunt and fish

Hunting and fishing are more than a passion for CIU alumnus Patrick Tyndall (CBS '06). In addition to his full-time job with the government, he also turns weekends into discipleship opportunities through his ministry, Ironman Outdoors.

World Christian Week - Feb. 26-29, 2008

---

The keynote speaker for World Christian Week is the Reverend Dr. Celestin Musekara. Musekara, a Rwandan, founded the African Leadership and Reconciliation Ministries, or ALARM (www.alarm-inc.org). In the face of tribal wars, ethnic conflicts, and genocide in Africa, ALARM actively promotes healing and reconciliation.

Unless otherwise noted, corporate chapels will be in Shortess at the following times:

Tuesday, Feb. 26 -- 10:50 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.
Wednesday, Feb. 27 -- 9:25 a.m. (Prayer Day)
Thursday, Feb. 28 -- 9:25 a.m. AND 3:00 p.m.

Jesus on processing life's changes

---

God enjoys change. Change is a gift from God in a fallen world. All change, however, involves some level of loss which must be grieved. In this audio podcast with downloadable printout, Dr. Roy King explains how Jesus taught his followers to process change.

Ambassador Choir -- Let's reunite!

Did you minister with the Ambassador Choir? If so, then we have good news for you! Homecoming 2008 (Sept 12-13) will feature a great reunion of the Ambassador Choir. You will be joined by Bill and Joyce Supplee and other former Ambassador Choir directors for a mini-concert performance. We encourage members to send in photos for us to scan and make available to everyone. If you'd like details on how to participate (sing or accompany) contact us at alumni@ciu.edu.

Leadership series for men

---

We are excited to announce a leadership series, "Revolutionary Leadership," facilitated at CIU by Mickey Bowdon, VP for Christian School Education, beginning Wednesday, March 5. This six-week series designed for men, begins Wednesday, March 5. It's a great opportunity to invite a neighbor, church or family member, co-worker, or someone you have wanted to introduce to CIU/Ben Lippen School.
