Policy Statement

The University operates on the semester system with the academic year divided into fall and spring semesters with a summer trailer term following spring.

Fall semesters are 16 weeks long and start in August and end in December. Spring semesters are 16 weeks long and begin in January and end in late April or early May. The Summer term is 16 weeks long. Within each 16 week semester or term are two 8 week subterms (or sessions).

Intensive courses may be offered during the periods between semesters and throughout the summer term. Sessions may have durations other than 16 weeks or 8 weeks.

Graduation conferral dates are the final day of the Fall semester, Spring semester, and summer term.

Prayer Days are determined by the president.

School holidays are days that classes do not meet. School holidays include: Labor Day; Fall Break (2 days); Thanksgiving (3 days); Winter Break (Monday following December commencement through first week in January); Martin Luther King Jr. Day; Spring Break (5 days); Good Friday; Memorial Day; July 4.

The last day to add/drop courses is seven days after the start of the semester, four days after the start of a subterm, the first day of a one-week intensive, and the second day of a two-week intensive.

The last date to withdrawal without academic penalty is the midpoint for a semester, subterm, the second day of a one week intensive, or the third day of a two-week intensive.

The deadline for the submission of final grades is ten calendar days after the semester, subterm, or intensive.

The Office of the Provost in conjunction with the Office of the University Registrar is responsible for the maintenance and update of the academic calendar, including annual review, adoption and revision of the three-year academic calendar, as well as reporting and publishing of academic calendar dates.

Rationale

This policy was developed to support student academic success and to provide consistent quality delivery of academic programs and services.

Procedures*Review and Adoption*

The academic calendar is prepared three years in advance and is initiated by the Provost's office using a template that combines the residential calendar (16 weeks) with the online calendar (two, eight-week sessions). The template is designed with proper number of convocation, class days, designated start/end dates, prayer days (determined by the president), special emphasis weeks, and commencements. Proposed calendars are presented to the Academic Council and Administrative Council for approval.

Publication and Dissemination

Upon approval, the academic calendar will be included in the annual academic catalog and posted to the CIU's website as the official academic calendar for the upcoming academic year as noted. The Registrar will forward a notice to the Faculty when the calendar has been officially posted. The calendar will be published by April 1st for the upcoming academic year

Revisions

Certain dates in the Academic Calendar are established by the Provost's Office. Should the Provost's Office modify those dates, the Academic Calendar shall be modified to reflect the Provost's dates without further review or approval. With this exception, the President's Cabinet shall approve any campus-based revisions in the three-year Academic Calendar. The Registrar's office shall disseminate the revised calendar to departments affected by the revisions.
