Koinonia Co-Op
What is the Koinonia Co-op? The Co-op is an on-campus storehouse stocked with Harvest Hope Food Bank products and various other items to help reduce the financial burdens in our community. Who’s eligible to join? Apartment residents, off-campus CIU students, faculty, staff, and alumni. Contact Co-Op Managers James and Leslie Wilson at 605-1522.

Last Wills and Testaments
Attorney Daniel K. Felker has graciously offered to prepare Last Wills & Testaments for our corporate CIU family at a special cost: $25.00 single wills, $40.00 married couple wills. He will be on campus to conduct consultations on Tuesday, Oct. 20th, 1 - 5 pm. Please come by or call the Student Life Office to make a 15 min. appointment by Friday, Oct. 16. A pre-appointment questionnaire will need to be completed and taken to your initial appointment.

CIU Prison Initiative
Interested in serving in the prison as a mentor? Please contact Grace Dye in Ridderhof if you have questions or would like more information; gdye@ciu.edu or ext. 5020.

Samson’s Promise
Samson’s Promise is a fellowship of men at CIU who strive for sexual purity in God’s design. Victory is possible through Christ, through Scripture and through fellowship. We will be using a video series “Conquer: A Battle Plan for Purity.” We meet on the lower level of Memorial Hall on Mondays at 7pm. Contact: Tony.Hipszer@mailbox.ciu.edu or 856-889-0265.

Chapel Absence Excuse
If you are an undergraduate in need of a permanent chapel excuse, you can request one at my.ciu.edu (Student Life Home Page - “Permanent Chapel Excuse”).

Chapel Absences
If you are an undergraduate and would like to check your chapel absence scanning record, go to your student home page on Myciu and see the tab “My Chapel Attendance.” The data is refreshed each Friday. Because the computer program only allows for one session per day, the second or third scan for prayer days are posted as separate days. For example, the afternoon session of this past prayer day on Wednesday, 8/16, is listed as 8/18 on your report.

CLC Ministries, Int’l.
Representatives Bill & Marge Almack will be in the Student Center on Sept. 21 from 10 am - 2 pm.
